

Daily Bulletin

Students wanting to take a dual credit course second semester, you need to fill out the application before you leave for Christmas break.

STUCO is helping out the Children's and Family Center. The list of items are on the mittens hanging on the tree by Ms. Auffert's door. The items are toilet paper, paper towels, Clorox wipes, zip-lock bags, Kleenex, Christmas decorations, home decor, picture frames, candles, games and puzzles. Please have items to school by December 15th. Thank you.

Yearbook Week - December 11-15 - Students and staff are encouraged to participate during Yearbook Week. Mrs. Frueh and staff are hosting a scavenger hunt and dress up days.

Scavenger Hunt will only be for eligible students during seminar time. Each class will receive a clue from their seminar teacher and may look for the item during seminar.

Dress Up Days

Merry Monday- Christmas Theme

Tuesday- Favorite Superhero Day

Wicked Wednesday- Villain character (Examples: Grinch, Harry, Marv, or other movie characters)

Thursday- Country vs. Country Club

Fake it Friday- Fake an Injury

Each grade will receive points for dress up and the scavenger hunt. The class with the most points will receive dessert at lunch and students picked for best-dressed every day will be put in a box for other prizes.

Pep Team needs to meet during Seminar on Friday in Ms. Auffert's room. Pep Team members are Ashley Thompson, Brycie Wray, Sarah Wray, Jackie Cline, and Saryn Brown.

STUCO meeting is next Wednesday, December 13, at 7:30 am in Ms. Auffert's room.

Congratulations to Arron Coleman, Emily Dew, Cheyenne Murphy, and Keagan O'Riley, who are four of the six finalists in United Electric Cooperative's video contest about saving energy. The four will now compete in a December 13 interview with UEC personnel. The two top finalists will receive a one-week trip to Washington, D.C., in June, with the third and four place finishers receiving a three-day trip to Jefferson City in July.
