

Daily Bulletin

Mark your calendars for the upcoming Science Fair tomorrow, 5-7pm! Information can be found on the bulletin board on 2nd floor near the water fountain.

The track cook out will be tonight at the large shelter house in Beal Park in Maryville starting around 5 PM. High School and Junior High students are encouraged to attend. More details to come.

The last day to return books to the library will be tomorrow, May 16th. Any students with books that are not returned, will be responsible for paying the replacement cost of the missing book before being signed out.

STUCO officer sheets are due tomorrow, Wednesday.

Current STUCO members and new officers are invited to a celebration of the school year on Friday, May 18th after school. We will be having food. Please let Ms. Auffert or Mrs. Calfee know if you will be attending so we have enough food.

Mrs. Smail has some left over "North Nodaway Run/Walk 2017" t-shirts for sale. They are royal blue and $5 each. The sizes are:

4 ---XL

2 --M

1 --S

Coach Calfee will be here TODAY during seminar to talk to the 6th and 7th Grade boys interested in Football next year. Meet in the old gym.
